

(<https://therai.org.uk>)

Royal Anthropological Institute

ETHNOGRAPHIC FILM

(<https://raifilm.org.uk/>)

CASADO'S LEGACY

(/FILMS/CASADOS-LEGACY)

49 minutes / Colour /

2009

Directed by

Valentina Bonifacio

Country of production

United Kingdom

Buy film ▼

For 100 years Maskoy people worked in Carlos Casado's tannin factory. The factory, which had been founded on their land, based its production on the exploitation of local natural resources. After exploiting the Language and subtitles

Spanish, Guarani

Region

South America

Country

Paraguay

Keywords

Political Activists Labour

territory, the company closed the factory and sold the land. For Maskoy people who fought against the company to repossess their former territory, Casado's legacy is a land without food. On this land, they have to rebuild their life, and in doing so, have to come to terms with their past and their dreams.

Land Rights

(<https://therai.org.uk>)

Site by NomadIT (<http://www.nomadit.co.uk>)

© Royal Anthropological Institute, 2017

(<http://www.nomadit.co.uk>)